Recognizing Those Who Sustain Our Mission

At the Walk for Dignity site are two Iowa City Hospice Tribute Walls that recognize our most generous donors from the past three decades.

Honorary Walk for Dignity Families, Estate Gifts, and exceptionally generous Memorials are also recognized. The Tribute Walls were made possible through a generous gift from Hills Bank and Trust Company and in-kind support from Watts Vault & Monument Company.

"Iowa City Hospice complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate or treat people differently on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, or religion. Iowa City Hospice will not exclude or discriminate based on pregnancy, gender identity, or sexual orientation. In addition, Iowa City Hospice is committed to enhancing language assistance for individuals with limited English proficiency or individuals with communication disabilities."

On the cover:

Pictured are highlights from our major events of the year: The Walk for Dignity and the Golf Classic.

Dear Friend of Iowa City Hospice,

Reporting to the community is an amazing opportunity to share the many wonderful things that are happening at Iowa City Hospice. Thanks to you, our supportive community, we have continued to provide care to anyone who needs it regardless of ability to pay. Providing care to anyone is part of our mission and your support helped us to provide 858 days of unreimbursed care in 2017. You made that happen by continuing to provide support with donations and volunteering your time.

In this report you will read about Dan Ciha and Gay & Ciha Funeral and Cremation Service. Dan has been a tireless volunteer and advocate for Iowa City Hospice for many years and we are pleased to share his story.

In the past year, the Bereavement department developed Kamp Kaleidoscope, a beautiful day camp for children who have experienced loss. This successful program will continue, and we hope to serve many more children in 2018. The Serious Illness website remains an important source of information for those affected by serious advanced illness and their caregivers. In September, we had our first Butterfly Release in conjunction with our fall memorial service. This is a service that not only honors loved ones who have been lost over the past year, but is a beautiful and moving sight when hundreds of butterflies are released at once.

Care Choices, a community palliative care program, has continued to enroll patients. This program is part of a Medicare demonstration model for community palliative care. Iowa City Hospice is one of 140 hospices nationwide to participate. Honoring Your Wishes has continued to be instrumental in increasing the number of people who have had conversations about end of life care with their loved ones. It has been successful in making a measurable increase in Advance Care Plans and IPOSTs (Iowa Physician Order for Scope of Treatment) in our community.

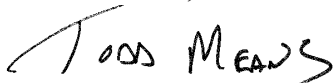

Finally, we were challenged to meet the demands of a growing healthcare organization in a changing healthcare landscape. As we enter 2018, our structure is capable of providing stability and support for growth. We are very well positioned to be pro-active in providing care and programming that meets the community's needs.

Thanks to an active and engaged Board of Directors and a compassionate, professional staff, we have had an eventful and successful year. To our community, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts for your generous, ongoing support!

Sincerely,

Karla Kamal, Executive Director

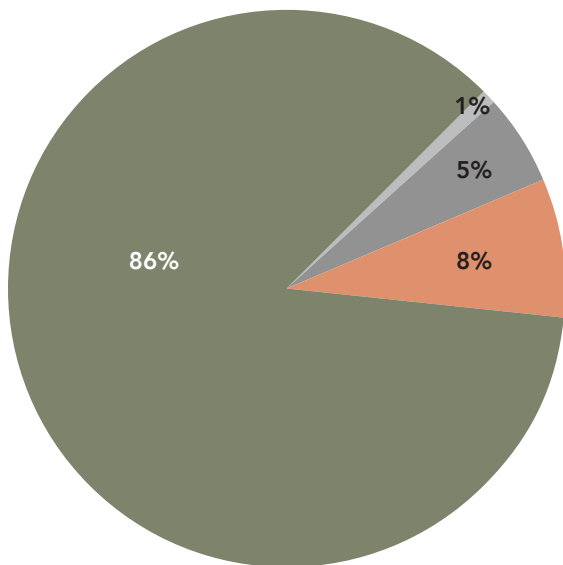

Todd Means, 2017 Board Chair

Long Relationship Creates an Ardent Supporter

AS A BUSINESS OWNER, DAN CIHA UNDERSTANDS FINANCIAL PRESSURES.

But he worries when such pressures dictate decisions or lead to reduced services. So as a passionate supporter of Iowa City Hospice, Dan works to ensure that this community-based not-for-profit has all the resources it needs.

“Iowa City Hospice has been here long before anyone else in the field and they know what they’re doing,” he says. “The staff is able to provide what a family needs without even being asked.”

Dan has owned Iowa City’s Gay and Ciha Funeral Home since 2001, but his connection to the funeral home goes back much further. Dan grew up in Johnson County and as a teen in the 1980s, Dan did lawn care and odd jobs for previous funeral home owner and director George Gay. After attending mortuary school in Dallas, Texas, Dan did his mortuary internship at the funeral home and then went to work there.

Dan’s relationship with Iowa City Hospice goes back almost as far. As a young funeral director, Dan came into contact with them and understood its mission. But when his own grandmother was dying, it became more personal. Dan suggested the use of hospice care to his grandfather, and he says that Iowa City Hospice was “awesome.”

“Grandma died at home in her own bed, with Grandpa next to her,” says Dan.

“Iowa City Hospice allows for a ‘good death.’ That might sound strange, but the staff takes away a lot of the uncertainty, so you never feel like you’re alone.”

Dan’s personal experience with Iowa City Hospice continued through his grandfather’s illness and death and that of both parents, his mother’s from dementia and his father’s from heart disease. Dan’s parents in particular received care from a wide range of hospice professionals—nurse, social worker, chaplain, and hospice aide. And Dan’s mother even benefited from music therapy visits.

“I’ll go to bat for Iowa City Hospice any day.”

DAN CIHA

During those times, Dan says Iowa City Hospice staff stood with the Ciha family while they made difficult decisions. He says he and his four siblings “just wrapped ourselves around hospice,” so appreciative were they of the unconditional support they received.

Over the years Dan has seen examples of Iowa City Hospice caring too numerous to count. He cites the staff’s patience, their continuity, their sincere compassion. He remembers going to the home of a deceased hospice patient in the middle of a cold winter night—and encountering an Iowa City Hospice volunteer there comforting the family.

Dan also believes strongly that if you benefit from something, “you need to support it.” And Dan’s support has been unwavering. Over the years he and the funeral home have provided lawn care and snow removal for Iowa City Hospice and bottled water and the use of a four-wheeler for the annual Walk for Dignity and Golf events. In addition to this behind-the-scenes work, he has provided generous financial sponsorships, fielded Walk teams, and helped support bereavement programs such as Writing Through Loss.

“I would hate to ever see services cut back or stopped due to financial reasons,” Dan says. “People sometimes don’t understand how special Iowa City Hospice is until they experience it.”

“When a family turns to hospice, it allows a lot of good things to happen at a very difficult time,” he adds. “I’ll go to bat for Iowa City Hospice any day.”

WAYS TO MAKE A GIFT

MEMORIALS

Memorial gifts are a meaningful way to honor a loved one while recognizing and thanking Iowa City Hospice for their care.

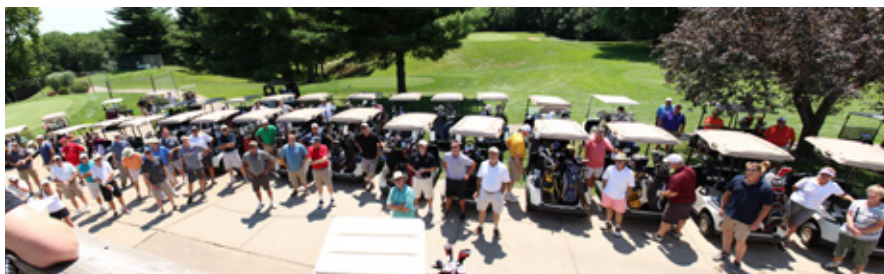

ANNUAL APPEAL

Each fall, Iowa City Hospice conducts an Annual Appeal campaign. Your Annual Appeal gift may be directed in a way that is meaningful to you including patient care, the Endowment Fund, or Honoring Your Wishes.

WALK FOR DIGNITY

The annual Walk for Dignity is held each spring on the fourth Sunday in April at 1 p.m. in Willow Creek Park. All are welcome to attend, enjoy the celebration of life and generate support for Iowa City Hospice. Many families that have been served by Iowa City Hospice form teams in memory of their loved ones. This is a wonderful way to provide critical support for patient care and bereavement services. Businesses may become Walk Sponsors. Sponsors are recognized with signage on the Sponsor's Trail and in printed materials. Contact Judy Frits at 319-688-4213 or judy.frits@IowaCityHospice.org
