Dear Friend of Iowa City Hospice,

This year Iowa City Hospice is celebrating a significant milestone — 30 years of bringing comfort and peace to those we serve, adding life to each day.

Iowa City Hospice was founded by volunteers who were firm in one mandate — provide high quality, compassionate end of life care to all without regard for ability to pay.

Still a not for profit hospice, Iowa City Hospice provided 1,822 days of community supported care in 2012!

In this report you will read the stories of Martha Lubaroff and Mark and Allison Law. In featuring Martha, one of our founders, we celebrate our past. In featuring Mark and Allison, we look to ways that we are securing the future by building our endowment fund, which will provide a lasting supplement to our operating funds. Also featured is Sue Orhon's moving story of running, remembering and giving back.

We have included a current snapshot of our accomplishments and offerings and listed many of our donors in the Honor Roll. A complete listing of donors may be viewed in our on-line Honor Roll at www.iowacityhospice.org. All gifts are greatly appreciated and make it possible to provide our compassionate care to all.

After 30 years, Volunteers are still the heart of Iowa City Hospice. To honor them, Iowa City Hospice Volunteers will serve as this year's Walk for Dignity Honorary Family! Volunteers in bright shirts will lead the Walk held at Willow Creek Park on April 21, at 1 p.m.

All are invited to join us at the Walk and throughout this next year in celebrating 30 years of guiding families, honoring wishes, and securing this amazing culture of compassionate end of life care for all.

Thank You for your confidence, loyalty and support.

“I cannot thank you enough because without your organization, my mother would not have had the peace and love that surrounded her the last days of her life. Thank you so very much.”

Lori Raife, daughter of Clarice Vance

Running, Remembering, Giving Back

Susan Orhon thought about her mother the first and last miles of the half marathon she ran in May of 2012 to raise funds for Iowa City Hospice. She thought about different people each of the other 11 miles including Iowa City Hospice Nurse, Dianna Rueter, and Aide, Ashea Sparrow. They helped make it possible for Susan's mother, Eileen, to die at home — empowering the family to have the confidence to care for her.

Her parents had retired and moved to Iowa City from Rhode Island in 2007, to be near Susan, and her family. One year later, at age 61, Eileen was diagnosed with liver cancer. She made the most of the next three years but in September of 2011 it was time to call Iowa City Hospice.

The staff taught Susan, her father, Mike, and brother, Dave, to care for Eileen and guided them as a family; even teaching Susan and her husband, Volkan, how to talk to their young children Norah, 3, and Emre, 4, about the end of life.

Following her mother's death, Susan knew she needed to burn off stress and get back in shape. She decided to run a half marathon, which had the added benefit of providing a means to raise funds for Iowa City Hospice.

Firstgiving (a web based fundraising program) made it easy. Susan reconnected with family and friends from throughout her life and raised $4,135 for patient care.

Looking back on the last days of her mother's life, Susan remembers that her mother had been very quiet for days. Still, Susan sang to her. On the last night of her life, Eileen opened her eyes, reached for Susan and hugged her. "It was the single most amazing moment," Susan recalls, grateful that she had been there to experience it.

Celebrating Our Past

Martha Lubaroff's first experience with hospice care was very personal.

Still true to the original mission and values — high quality hospice for all.

In 1977 Martha's sister, Helen, called to let Martha know that it was time to come to California to help care for their mother. Years before, they had agreed that when it came to their mother's care, "We were in this together."

Their father had died alone in a hospital in 1963. "It was awful," Martha recalls. "So, we convinced mother's doctor to make house calls and the Visiting Nurses taught us how to care for her."

For the next six weeks, while caring for their mother, they made some of her recipes, ate Cadbury eggs together and with the kids snuggled up on her bed, shared and made special memories.

When Martha came back to Iowa, she began doing research on hospice care and as fate would have it, was introduced to Mary Child who was doing a paper on hospice care for her masters in social work. They were joined by Helen Zerwas, and together brought their belief in this more intimate way of caring for the dying to the community. In the first year, they gave 60 presentations, gaining more supporters.

A Board of Directors was formed, many ethical and practical issues were confronted, Bruce Hauptert wrote up Articles of Incorporation, funds were raised and Mercy Iowa City donated office space. In 1983 Dr. Charlie Driscoll agreed to serve as the first Medical Director and Laurie Neunaber was hired as the first employee of Iowa City Hospice.

Thirty years later, Martha is humbled when she hears all that is being done by Iowa City Hospice. "They are still true to the original mission and values — high quality hospice for all, without regard for payment — we fought very hard for that," Martha says. "I was always worried that would be lost."

Martha still feels a strong tie to Iowa City Hospice and continues to raise funds through the annual Walk for Dignity. Martha says, "I run into people all the time who tell me how wonderful it is — I never would have dreamed it." Thankfully, she did.

Securing Our Future

You might wonder why Mark and Allison Law, a busy couple, raising two young sons, and pursuing demanding careers, include both volunteering and financial support for Iowa City Hospice in their busy lives.

Giving beyond just us.

Mark has a ready reply, "I believe in Iowa City Hospice because of their unwillingness to compromise on standard of care. If someone can benefit from music therapy, it will be provided even if not covered by insurance. The same applies to their other needs — I am so impressed by this," he says.

Allison adds, "I firmly believe in dignity in the last days of life." As Vice President of Operations for Senior Housing, managing assisted living communities; she has seen the benefit of hospice care. "Iowa City Hospice focuses not only on the patient but the entire family — and the care carries on with bereavement services," she says.

Mark, Director of Wealth Management at the University of Iowa Community Credit Union, got involved with Iowa City Hospice after completing the Chamber of Commerce Community Leadership Program. A friend, John Chadima, had been involved with Iowa City Hospice for some time and suggested that Mark take a look at the not for profit hospice provider.

Mark was impressed and has been involved with Iowa City Hospice ever since he joined the Board of Directors in 2007. Having completed two terms, he continues to serve, bringing his expertise in finance to the organization's finance committee.

Allison followed Mark onto the Iowa City Hospice Board bringing her valuable experience in dealing with the elderly. She has seen how hospice care makes a difference. "Music therapy and massage can reach and comfort even those in the last stages of dementia," she says, "they take their last breaths peacefully and painlessly."

In addition to service, Mark and Allison contribute annually to the Iowa City Hospice Endowment Fund, held and managed by the Johnson County Community Foundation. They both believe in endowments, in which the principle investments are preserved, and see it as a way of securing the future of Iowa City Hospice.

"We like the permanence of endowment giving — the self-sustaining aspect," Mark says, "Because endowments provide for the future, it is giving beyond just us."

Honor Roll 2012

We are pleased to recognize our donors in this Honor Roll of Givers for 2012. We could not provide the support services and high quality, compassionate care to all at the end of life without private support from our donors. Your generosity is greatly appreciated and we Thank You!

Ways to Make a Gift

MEMORIALS

Memorial gifts are a meaningful way to honor a loved one while recognizing and thanking Iowa City Hospice for their care.

ANNUAL FUND

Each fall, Iowa City Hospice conducts an Annual Fund campaign. Your Annual Fund gift may be directed in a way that is meaningful to you including patient care, alternative therapies, staff education or the Endowment Fund.

WALK FOR DIGNITY

The annual Walk for Dignity is held each spring on the third Sunday in April at 1 p.m. in Willow Creek Park. All are welcome to attend, enjoy the celebration of life and generate support for Iowa City Hospice. Many families that have been served by Iowa City Hospice form teams in memory of their loved ones. This is a wonderful way to provide critical support for patient care and bereavement services. Businesses may become Walk Sponsors. Sponsors are recognized with signage on the Sponsor's Trail and in printed materials. Contact Judy Frits at 319-688-4213 or judy.frits@IowaCityHospice.org

GOLF OUTING

The Annual Glenn Roberts Elks/Iowa City Hospice Charity Golf Classic is held the first Monday of each August to benefit patient care and bereavement services. Have fun and support Iowa City Hospice by forming a team or becoming a sponsor. Contact Judy Frits at 319-688-4213 or judy.frits@IowaCityHospice.org

HONOR A CAREGIVER

Did you know that you may make your gift in honor of Iowa City Hospice caregivers? Include a note with your gift and it will be shared with the staff person(s) you have chosen to honor and the hospice team. You may designate this gift for patient care or staff education.

CASH GIFTS

may be made with a personal check, a credit card authorization or on-line at www.iowacityhospice.org

MATCHING GIFTS

Your employer may offer matching gifts for charities that are supported by their employees, increasing the impact of your gift. Check with your employer.

ENDOWMENT GIFTS

Gifts for the Iowa City Hospice Endowment Fund may be made directly to the Community Foundation of Johnson County. There are significant tax benefits for donors who make their gift in this way. To learn more, visit their web site at communityfoundationofjohnsoncounty.org or contact Mike Stoffregen at mstoffregen@iowacityarea.com or 319-337-0483. Endowment Fund gifts remain invested so that your gift is a source For Good...For Ever.

PLANNED GIFTS

may be made in many different ways. Your lawyer or financial professional can advise you on the best means to make such a gift and the benefits to you and your family. For the information you will need to include Iowa City Hospice in your estate plans, visit our web site for bequest language or contact Maggie Elliott, Executive Director at 319-688-4212.

LEAVE A LEGACY[®]

LEAVE A LEGACY

Iowa City Hospice is a member of the state Leave a Legacy effort that helps everyday people make a difference in the lives that follow through estate gifts. Leave a Legacy provides extensive information on making legacy gifts at their web site, www.leavealegacyiowa.org
