FROM THE CEO

Dear Friends,

Every community is measured not only by it's growth or success, but by how it cares for those who need it most.

Here in the communities that we live and serve, we are reminded every day that true strength is found in compassion. It lives in the quiet moments: a nurse sitting at a bedside, a volunteer offering comfort, and neighbors showing up for one another in times of uncertainty.

At Iowa City Hospice & Visiting Nurse Association, we believe that caring for the most vulnerable among us is the work of an entire community. It is a shared commitment to ensure that no one faces serious illness, aging, or the end of life without dignity, comfort, and support. Because of you, that commitment remains strong.

As a community-based nonprofit, we are deeply rooted in the belief that care should be local, personal, and accessible to all. Together, we are removing barriers, meeting people where they are, and surrounding patients and families with the kind of care that honors their values and wishes.

When you support Iowa City Hospice & VNA, you are helping to build something far greater than a healthcare service. You are building a community where no one is forgotten, where caregivers are uplifted, and where each person is seen, heard, and valued.

In a world that can often feel disconnected, your compassion creates connection. It ensures that, even in life's most difficult moments, people are not alone.
Thank you for standing with us, for believing in this mission, and for helping us build a stronger, more caring community, together.
